Banks Make Gains.

Local banks made a further gain by their operations with the Subtreasury. Forecast of to-morrow's bank statement indicates an increase in cash of about $15,000,000$.

Investors should not be carried away by the optimism of professional traders. Careful discrimination must be observed in the purchase of securities. Many of the standard dividend paying stocks are still below intrinste value. The present advance is anticipating an improvement in business that is still some weeks away.

New Orleans, January 16.—The cotton market had a good tone in the early trading today and a tendency to advance. In the aftergoon the good tone was lost, and while no great decline was scored, the close was at the lowest of the day. The depression started with the report that a large French banking institution had falled. Selling increased on the Cenaus Bureau figures showing a production of linters to the end of December of 325,326 bales against 332,572 bales to the corresponding date inst season. At most the trade paid little attention to these statistics, but when it was shown that while ginning to December 31 exceeded ginding to the same date last year by only 3 per cent, the productions of linters was exceeded by 12 per cent, and both sides increased their offerings.

2 per cent, and both sides increased their offerings.

Opening steady at a rise of 497 points the narket went egs points up in the early rading. Cables were better than due. The evance did not has long, but the decline was gradual. At noon prices were 296 points inder yesterday's has quotations. In the flermoon the market was dull and made no show of strength. The close was stendy at a ct loss of 598 points.

Trade Report.

Bradstreet's to-morrow will say for Richmond and vicinity: Travelers for most lines have resumed their duties following the holidays, and a fair volume of orders are being received. Cold weather has stimulated sales of seasonable commodities, particularly wearing apparel. Stocks are generally reported low, and dealers anticipate larger orders and improved business conditions as the spring season approaches. Building operations continue quiet, Retsil trade is fair and collections slow.
